A Message from Mrs Moffatt

We would like to thank parents for their continued support in helping us keep our school site safe. Despite previous reminders, concerns have continued to be raised regarding cars blocking gates, inappropriate language between adults, unsafe driving and parents reversing back through the car park to rejoin the main road. This manoeuvre is particularly dangerous as it increases the risk to pedestrians, including children and families entering and leaving the site. The safety of everyone on our school grounds remains our highest priority. Whilst we do not want to restrict access to the car park, we have a duty to ensure the site is safe for all users. If these concerns continue and improvements are not made, we may unfortunately be left with no alternative but to restrict access to the car park. We appreciate that the vast majority of parents use the car park responsibly and courteously.

Safeguarding

Laurel Lane's Safeguarding Team: Miss Walton, Mrs Moffatt, Miss Attwood, Mrs Rowden and Mrs Keenan

Keeping children safe starts with conversation. Talking about body safety can feel uncomfortable – but it's one of the most powerful ways to protect children. Children who understand their bodies, boundaries and rights are more confident and better equipped to speak up if something feels wrong. You don't need a big formal talk – short, everyday chats work best.

Here are some simple conversation starters you can use:

"If someone made you feel uncomfortable, who would you tell?"

"Has anyone ever asked you to keep a secret that made you feel funny or unsure?"

"You're allowed to say 'no' to hugs or kisses, even to family – how do you feel about that?"

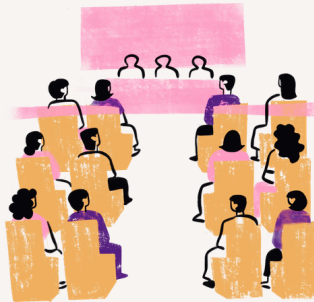

Use natural moments (e.g. bath time, getting dressed, bedtime stories, a walk in the park) to bring up the topic gently. Keep your tone calm and reassuring. The goal is to help children feel safe, heard and empowered. Reassure them: "You can always talk to me about anything – I'll always listen and help."

Celebrating Our Pupils' Achievements

Harvey was incredibly proud of himself after learning how to do front flips and land safely on his feet at Jump Giants. He was so excited by his achievement that he wanted to go back every weekend to practise. He was keen for this to be shared with everyone because he was so proud of what he had learnt.

Well done, Harvey, for showing such determination and confidence! 🎉👏

We would love to hear about the exciting things your children get up to outside of school, as we may be able to feature them in a future newsletter. This could be anything from a trip to the park, taking part in a dance competition, playing in a sporting event, visiting somewhere special, learning a new skill or simply doing something they are really proud of.

If your child has something they would like to share, please send a photo and a short description of the activity to the school email address and we will do our best to include it in the newsletter.
